From the Administrator's Desk: Fr Ton NguyenA Gift That Gives Life

What was the very first sacred institution God established for humanity? It was marriage.

Do you remember the joy of Adam when Eve was brought before him? He exclaimed, "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh" (Genesis 2:23).
The Book of Genesis then reveals God's beautiful plan for marriage, "Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and the two become one flesh." Immediately afterward come the first words God speaks to humanity: "Be fertile and multiply."

What a beautiful beginning! God never created humanity to compete with Him. Rather, He willed us into existence out of love and entrusted us with the privilege of cooperating in His work of creation. Every human life is a gift, called into being by God's loving will.

This Sunday's reading from the prophet Isaiah beautifully echoes this truth.
Isaiah compares God's word to the rain and snow that come down from heaven. They do not return until they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the sower and bread to the hungry. In the same way, God's word never returns empty. It always accomplishes His purpose and brings forth life where it is received with faith.

This message also harmonizes beautifully with Pope Leo XIV's prayer intention for July: "Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God." May we never take for granted the precious gift of life—from conception to natural death—and may each of us use the life God has entrusted to us for His greater glory.

This weekend our parish also has the joy of celebrating those couples who are observing fifty years or more of married life at the 11 AM Mass. Their faithful witness reminds us that love is more than a feeling; it is a lifelong vocation of sacrifice, forgiveness, perseverance, and joy. Please join me in thanking them and congratulating them on this remarkable milestone. They have become living witnesses to God's faithful love.

Q&A with Your Priest

People often ask me, "Father, what is one of your favorite prayers?"

One prayer that has always inspired me was written by Fr. Jean-Baptiste Henri Lacordaire, O.P.: "To live in the midst of the world with no desire for its pleasures; to be a member of every family, yet belonging to none; to share all sufferings; to penetrate all secrets, to heal all wounds; to daily go from men to God to offer Him their homage and petitions; to return from God to men to bring them His pardon and hope; to have a heart of fire for charity and a heart of bronze for chastity; to bless and to be blessed forever. O God, what a life, and it is yours, O Priest of Jesus Christ! Amen."

I truly love being a priest, and I am deeply grateful that God has called me to serve the parish family of St. Mother Theodore Guerin. As I continue getting to know everyone, please help me become part of the family. Have me over for a cup of coffee, a cup of tea, or even a family meal. Stop by the pastoral center for a conversation, or simply introduce yourself after Mass. Don't be shy! I look forward to getting to know each of you and walking together as we grow in faith.

JMJ,
Fr. Ton Nguyen

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

My word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it. (Is 55:11)

Psalm:

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. (Ps 65)

Second Reading:

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.
(Rom 8:18)

Gospel:

Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. (Mt 13:17)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Our hearts are fertile ground for the Word of God, but we must be careful gardeners. Be conscious of what damages and depletes the soil of your heart. Pay attention to what nourishes it, so that the goodness of the Word can bloom forth into the world.

Virtues, Explained!

Forgiveness is love in action. It is mercy extended for no other reason than a desire to be like God, who forgives us out of sheer goodness. The Catechism says that forgiveness proves that "love is stronger than sin."

Blessing for Abundant Growth

Dear God,
Bless our efforts in Your Name.
Help us to understand Your will.
Allow us to follow the invitation You have provided.
We want to be rich soil — help us respond deeply and abundantly to every place You call.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Sometimes I feel capable of absorbing almost anything except God's Word. My mind soaks up song lyrics, sports trivia, and endless online content. But what was the reading at Mass this morning? I struggle to recall. That realization discourages me, and it leads to an uncomfortable question. What is my heart really for? Is it shaped for constant information and distraction, or is it truly designed for God? Am I capable of deeply receiving His Word?

Jesus speaks directly to this today with a simple image. "The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it." By comparing the Word of the Kingdom to a seed, Jesus reveals something hopeful about us. The human heart is made for that seed. Soil and seed belong together. No matter how compacted, rocky, or overgrown the ground has become, the Sower never stops sowing.

God loves our hearts. He sees them as a farmer sees his fields, full of potential. Human hearts can indeed "understand the Word." Understanding does not mean mastering information. It means letting the Word sink in, interacting with it, and giving it a home. It means trusting that, beneath the surface, God is at work in quiet and hidden ways.

When we allow the Holy Spirit to loosen the soil of our hearts through prayer, repentance, and simplicity, the same Word that created the universe begins to bear fruit in us, 30, 60, even a hundredfold.

Lord Jesus, Sower of life, soften the soil of my heart. Let Your Word take root in me again, and bring forth the fruit You desire. Amen.

— Father John Muir

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Gardener and the Soil

I began writing this piece by googling “how do you make soil fertile?” which should tell you everything you need to know about my own abilities as a gardener.

I remember seeing a packet of seeds in the store one summer as a child and convincing my mother to buy them. They were delphiniums, which bloom into a beautiful cone shape if you know what you’re doing. Alas, I didn’t. I chose for my garden a particularly dry spot of earth right next to my backyard playset, scattered the seeds, congratulated myself, and went on my merry way. I returned occasionally to water the area, but only when I remembered to.

Nothing grew, not even a little sprout. I was more than heartbroken — my faith was shaken. I had planted these seeds! I had watered them! (A little.) There was sunlight! All my childhood books and rhymes said this was all you needed. Was it all a lie?

Of course it wasn’t a lie. Seeds need soil, sunlight, water, and oxygen — good soil, adequate sunlight for whatever the plant is, and consistent water.

So what seeds need more than anything is a gardener. (At least, delphiniums do.)

When I hear the parable of the rich soil and the rocky ground in the Gospel of Matthew, I often miss the point. I think Jesus is trying to give me a message about how I should be. “Be better.” That’s what I think he’s telling me.

I forget that I am only the soil. I cannot enrich myself; all my efforts to do so will come to nothing. What he is telling me is to ask the gardener: “Make me what I need to be.”

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

My friend has never heard of Christ and I want to share the Gospel with her but I’m afraid to. How do I share my faith?

Answer:

There are a lot of ways to bring up the topic of religion, without being judgmental or pushy. Begin by asking what her thoughts are about religion, or what her experience was growing up. Finding common ground is often easier than you think, because the questions and problems we have about God, the presence of evil, our purpose in life, and our relationship with God are universal concerns.

Why are you afraid? If you do not want to insult or offend someone, don’t be pushy or judgmental. If you are uncertain about how to explain your own faith, do a little reading or practice with a friend. If you measure success only by this person converting, focus your attention more on beginning the conversation, not on bringing it to a perfect close! Faith is a journey of many acts of belief, many discussions about God, and many choices about how we practice what we preach. In some we will have great success; in others we will need forgiveness and perseverance. The most important thing to keep in mind is that the Holy Spirit is always at work and our most humble efforts can bear great fruit. Have faith in God because He has faith in you!

Sr. Johanna Tremblé Thank You July 19

Sr. Johanna Tremblé, SSSF, of the School Sisters of St. Francis, has been an active member of our parish for many, many years, and most of you know her from running the Food Pantry for over 35 years and from eating her apricot convent cookies at many events. Sr. Johanna has moved to the motherhouse but will be here on Sunday, July 19 and we would like to say thank you to her at the 11 AM Mass. Please join us that day to thank her for her service and to wish Sr. Johanna well!

Mother of Perpetual Help Society Devotional

The Mother of Perpetual Help Society invites you to join us for the Mother of Perpetual Help Devotional held every Tuesday evening in the St. Celestine Chapel. We pray the rosary at 7 PM and then the Mother of Perpetual Help Novena at 7:30 PM. You may join us for either the rosary or the novena or both!

This beautiful and time-honored devotion is a peaceful opportunity to place our needs, our families, and our parish under the loving care of Our Blessed Mother.

All are welcome to come and pray and find comfort, hope and strength through Mary's intercession.

Bus Drivers and Riders

Would you like to help people attend the 9 AM Mass? Several men have volunteered to drive the parish bus to pick up people who need a ride to the 9 AM Mass on Sunday. If you would like to help drive, please call the parish and let Lynn know about your availability. We would like to get enough drivers that we could expand our ministry to the 4:30 PM Mass too. School families, you can earn service hours this way, too. Would you like a ride to the 9 AM Mass? Call Lynn at 708-453-2555 by Friday each week and we will pick you up at your house.

School Organization Day

Mark your Calendars! Organization Day, Tuesday, August 4, from 4—7 PM, is quickly approaching. This is when parents receive classroom assignments, important school paperwork, and the opportunity to get involved with various parish and school organizations.

If you have not registered and are interested in St. Celestine School, please call the school office at 708-453-8234.

We look forward to welcoming new families and seeing our returning families.

Memorial Gardens

Have you seen the beautiful Memorial Gardens on 76th Court? There is one for our deceased love ones right next to the Pastoral Center and one for our pets who are no longer with us under the trees by the church sign. If you would like a stone hand-lettered with the name of your loved one on it, please drop a note in the collection basket or call or come into the parish office at 3020 N. 76th Ct. and one will be made for you. The suggested donation is $10. Thanks to the Maraviglia family so making this garden so beautiful!
