Disciple Maker Index

From the Archdiocese:

St. Mother Theodore Guerin parish is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ in our parish community. This process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and that is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in. The DMI is a survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey here at St. Mother Guerin.

The 10–15–minute survey can be accessed through an online link on the website, stguerinparish.org, or through this one: <https://survey.catholicleaders.org/dmi/survey/p57dg8> until March 29 and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide your perspective on our parish's efforts to help you grow in relationship with Christ. All responses will be confidential, and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. Paper surveys will also be available for those who do not have the ability to complete the survey online.

Thank you for helping with this important project and please continue to pray for this intention and for the growth and protection of our parish.

St. Mother Theodore Guerin Parish

Welcome! If you are new to our churches or just visiting, please introduce yourself. We are happy to share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a church home, or your church is not home to you, we are open to anyone looking for a spiritual home. We invite you to become a part of our parish. Register by calling the parish office at 708-453-2555 or online on our website, stguerinparish.org.

Food Pantry

Our parish Food Pantry needs food donations. Can you help? We need canned goods, cereal, peanut butter, jelly, cans of fruit, cans of soup, and non-perishable goods. Other suggested donations are cooking oil, tuna, salt, pepper, and spices, cake mix and frosting for birthdays, sugar, flour, coffee, and tea. Donations of cash or checks made out to St. Mother Guerin parish are great so we can buy meat and fresh foods.

Please drop off at the Pastoral Center or in the back of the churches. Thank you!

Parish Annual Raffles If you haven't bought your raffle tickets yet, please do so! I would like to encourage every family to help us by purchasing tickets or selling them to friends and coworkers. We are giving away a total of $8,000 in prizes: a first prize of $5,000, a second prize of $2,000, and a third prize of $1,000. You can return your tickets to the Pastoral Center or drop them in the collection baskets. The drawing will be held on Easter Sunday after the 11AM Mass. Thank you for your financial support and for everything you do to help our parish grow spiritually strong and vibrant. May God bless you for your good work!

Rejoice Sunday This weekend, we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent, traditionally known as Laetare Sunday or Rejoice Sunday. This day sets a tone of joyful anticipation for the Easter mystery. In Year A, the readings center on the theme of Light and Sight.

In the second reading, St. Paul encourages us to live as "children of light," for the light of Christ exposes what is hidden in darkness. In the Gospel (John 9:1-41), we hear the dramatic narrative of the healing of the man born blind. It is a powerful story where the man gains both physical and spiritual sight, while the religious leaders—who can physically see—remain spiritually blind.

Let us rejoice because we are nearing Easter! This is a great opportunity to reflect on the love of God, turning away from sinfulness and remaining faithful in our daily lives. Ask yourself: How am I doing so far this Lenten season? Am I living as a child of light by doing good works and avoiding anything that prevents me from being closer to Jesus?

A Message from Pope Leo XIV During Lent, Pope Leo XIV invited Catholics to open ourselves to listening, fasting, and community. He urged us to abstain from words of hatred to make space for words of hope and peace: "I would like to invite you to a very practical and frequently unappreciated form of abstinence: that of refraining from words that offend and hurt our neighbor."

The Pope pointed to this "fasting of the tongue" as a vital practice. "Let us begin by disarming our language, avoiding harsh words and rash judgment, and refraining from slander," he said. Instead, he calls us to cultivate kindness and respect in our families, at work, on social media, and within our Christian communities. If we do so, words of hatred will "give way to words of hope and peace." As we reach the halfway point of Lent, let us reflect on this message. By abstaining from hurtful words, we live as people of love and light, following Jesus to bring peace to others.

May God bless you always, and may this Lenten season bring us all closer to the Lord!

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand,
anointed David in the presence of his brothers;
and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.
(1 Sm 16:13)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading:

"Awake, O sleeper,
and arise from the dead,
and Christ will give you light." (Eph 5:14)

Gospel:

He spat on the ground
and made clay with the saliva,
and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him,
"Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" — which means Sent — .
So he went and washed, and came back able to see. (Jn 9:6-7)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The Pharisees refused to see what was in front of them. Their blindness was stronger than that of the man born without sight, because it was a blindness they chose for themselves. So what will it be for us? Do we choose blindness, or do we choose sight?

Observances for the week of March 15, 2026

- Sunday: 4th Sunday of Lent
Tuesday: St. Patrick, Bishop; St. Patrick's Day
Wednesday: St. Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
Thursday: St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Next Sunday: 5th Sunday of Lent

Virtues, Explained!

Christian hope "is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness" (CCC 1817), even as we recognize that our own strength and merit can never achieve this. Hope, simply, is remembering that God keeps His promises.

Blessing to See

Bless us, Lord, to see as You see.
Remind us that heartbeats and hopes can outshine outward show.
That quiet witness can overcome violence and darkness.
That Your Light can break like the dawn.
Amen.

They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." - Jn 9:13-15

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Samuel does not expect the Lord to anoint the young David as Israel's next king. When have you been surprised by God doing something unexpected in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul expects the believers in Ephesus to live as children of light and learn what is pleasing to the Lord. What could you do this week that is pleasing to the Lord?

Gospel:

Jesus' healing of the blind man causes confusion and even anger to those who do not see him as the Christ. Have you seen or felt God's presence in this season of Lent?

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

( PRACTICING ) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: I wonder what it was that made the blind man feel he could trust Jesus. Was it something in his voice? In his touch? We'll never know. But we do know this: the blind man's sight wasn't restored until he made a decision. A decision to be sent.

Sent

I don't know about you. But if I was a blind person sitting by the side of the road, minding my own business, and a stranger came along and rubbed spit-mud in my eye, I'm just salty enough that I would ignore his words out of spite.

Even though he was, admittedly, super-nice about the whole thing.

Obviously I would wash the mud out, because ... spit. But I wouldn't go to the Pool of Siloam. I would go to a pool on the whole other side of town, just to be contrary. I would make frustrated, grossed-out noises while I splashed water on my eyes: "Ugh! I can't believe this! People are the worst!" I would feel satisfied that I wasn't tricked or conned or taken advantage of.

And I would stay blind the rest of my life.

When Jesus performs a miracle in the Gospel, we sometimes think of it like a fireworks show. Something people point at — "Ooh! Aah!" — and move on from. But a miracle of Jesus is not a party trick. It is a commissioning.

And each of us, in our own way, has the choice of accepting it or not.

Nowhere in the Gospel story does it say that Jesus promised the man sight if he washed in the pool. I wonder what it was that made the blind man feel he could trust Jesus. Was it something in his voice? Was it something in his touch? Was it the humanity with which he spoke of the blind man to his disciples — a gentleness missing from most other interactions of his life?

We'll never know. But we do know this: the blind man's sight wasn't restored until he made a decision. A decision to be sent.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

The Bible talks a lot about "testifying" or "giving testimony" to our faith. That makes me think of a courtroom. What does testifying to faith look like in everyday life?

Answer:

The courtroom image isn't too far off for some Christians. The Church has often been persecuted, and it was especially intense in the early days of the Church, when Acts and the various epistles were being written. For persecuted Christians, it did mean attesting publicly to their faith in Jesus Christ, sometimes before harsh judges. To testify is to bear witness, and this is something we are all called to do.

The call of Jesus is, first and foremost, a call to conversion of life. It is a repentance from sin, a casting off of old ways of seeing and moving in the world. The Christian life is one of transformation, becoming more and more like our God of love. In one sense, to testify to faith should happen naturally as we live like Jesus did. Our lives should bear witness in the respect we accord to others and the uncompromising dignity we honor in them. We bear witness in our gratitude, in our joy, in our hope in God's power and grace. This is where we start! Sometimes others might inquire, as St. Peter puts it, as to "a reason for your hope." Now you're on the stand! It's time to offer, "with gentleness and reverence," the Good News of the Gospel (c.f. 1 Peter 3:15-16).

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

If you are like me, it's easy to fixate on our shadows: failures, guilt, shame. Especially when we suffer, it is easy to want to blame ourselves or others. In this week's Gospel, Jesus' disciples ask about the blind man, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents?" (John 9:2) They, like us, focus on blame. But Jesus sees the entire situation differently: "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him." He does not deny sin, but he sees deeper — through the light of mercy, not the lens of judgment. The scene hinges on Jesus' strange claim: "I am the light of the world" (John 9:5). He sees things differently than everyone. They see shadows and light. He is the light.

Thought experiment: imagine you are the sun looking at everything on the earth. What do you see? Everything. What do you not see? Shadows. Everything is illuminated. If you see it, it is illuminated. For the light, nothing is dark.

Because he is the light, Jesus sees us in the glow of his redemptive love. Even our sin becomes a place where his glory can shine. The man's healing is not just about sight — it is about seeing as Christ sees. Lent is not a season of staring into darkness. It is a time to step into the light — to let Christ's gaze reframe how we see ourselves and one another.

Lenten challenge: Spend 10 quiet minutes this week asking Jesus to show you how he sees you. Not through shame or fear, but through the light of his mercy.

Origins of the Stations of the Cross

During the time of the crusades (1095–1270), it became popular for pilgrims in the Holy Land to walk in the footsteps of Jesus to Calvary. It is speculated that the Stations of the Cross became a popular substitute pilgrimage throughout Europe after the Muslims recaptured the Holy Land making pilgrimages there too dangerous.

The popularity of the Stations of the Cross was fostered by the Franciscans. The Stations represented critical events from Scripture or tradition of Jesus' journey to Calvary. Originally done only outdoors, the Stations were allowed inside churches in the mid-18th century. The object of the Stations is to help the faithful to make in spirit, a pilgrimage to the chief scenes of Christ's sufferings and death, and this has become one of the most popular of Catholic devotions.

Following the Stations of the Cross is a powerful way to help people contemplate the journey of Jesus to the cross and its significance for our lives. The Stations of the Cross is a mini-pilgrimage allowing us to engage all of our senses, heart, mind and body. [Compiled by Deacon Dave and Thérèse Ream, O.F.S., Revised July 2017]

Experience the Labyrinth during Holy Week

The Walking Labyrinth/Meditation Room at Our Parish

The Labyrinth/Meditation Room experience has been at our parish since February 2002. It is open to our parishioners and to all parishes in the Chicago Archdiocese during Holy Week. Over the years it has been featured in local papers, the Chicago Catholic paper and various religious radio programs in Chicago. Our Labyrinth was also featured in 2007 at the Chicago Catechetical Conference at the Rosemont Convention Center. It is presented to the entire St. Celestine school population during Holy Week and is also offered to the Religious Education students and Special Religious Education program.

The Labyrinth/Meditation Room* will be open to the public on the following dates and times:

- Palm Sunday (March 29) from Noon—5pm
- Monday (March 30)—Thursday (April 3) from 4—9PM
- Good Friday (April 4) from 9AM—9PM

We invite you to come and take the time for some quiet reflection this Lent.

**Please note that you do not have to walk the Labyrinth. You may come in and sit in the environment for your own reflection experience.**

Here are some quotes from people that participated in walking the labyrinth in the past: "As I entered I realized I was walking quickly and as I began to pray I slowed my pace and began to relax and enjoy my talk with God. This was a very powerful experience."

"A very moving experience. It certainly fulfilled the need to slow down and to take the time to listen."

"As I walked the paths of the labyrinth it reminded me of the many turns life gives us.. Some are longer, some shorter but all have meaning..."

Secular Franciscan Order

"The Mass has ended, go in peace to love and serve the Lord." How do we do that? Since 1959, members of the St. Juliana Fraternity of the Secular Franciscan Order have sought to follow the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi by "going from Gospel to life and from life to Gospel." If following the Rule of St. Francis might interest you, the SFO fraternity at St. Juliana meets once each month.
